

Germany	U.S. Involvement	Japan	U.S. At Home	Europe
100	100	100	100	100
Great depression, failed businesses, bitterness over Treaty of Versailles	Set up the America First Committee	Resources	Women in the military	Germany military blockade of Leningrad
Germany's reasoning for starting WWII	Isolationists	Why Japan was looking to expand its control in the Pacific	What were WACs and WAVEs	siege
200	200	200	200	200
The German people who felt they were superior to other groups of people	The law that led to the first peacetime draft	December 8th, 1941	military and civilian preparations for war	Operation Overlord a.k.a
Nazis	Selective Service Act	U.S. declares war on Japan	mobilization	D-Day
300	300	300	300	300
He set up a totalitarian rule in Germany	Allowed the U.S. to sell, lend or lease weapons to any country vital to the defense of the U.S.	Military and political leaders worried about loyalty of Japanese Americans	Enforced blackouts during WWII	May 8th, 1945
Hitler	Lend-Lease Act	Led to internment camps	civil defense	V-E Day
400	400	400	400	400
Where British and French were told that Germany would not further expand	Roosevelt and Churchill set goals for the world after the war	Supreme Court upheld internment camps	332nd Fighter group	Genocide of the Jewish people in Europe
Munich Conference	Atlantic Charter	Korematsu v. U.S.	Tuskegee Airmen	Holocaust
500	500	500	500	500
The reason Germany attacked the Soviet Union	Froze Japanese funds, stopped the sale of resources to Japan	August 15, 1945	farm and railroad workers from Mexico	Led to death and imprisonment of Nazi officers
	Why Japan attacked	V J Day	braceros

Resources

why japan attacked
Pearl Harbor

v-j Day

MIACIO

Nuremberg Trials