

Section 1 Cold War Origins	Postwar Politics	The Korean War	America in the 1950's	Misc. Ch. 27
100	100	100	100	100
Led to Truman becoming President	Price increases from huge increases in consumer demand and spending	The divide between Communist Korea in north and non-communist Korea in south	Created jobs, easier exit route, and spurred economic growth during Eisenhower presidency	Who backed North Korean during Korean War
FDR's death	Inflation	38th Parallel	Interstate highway system	China
200	200	200	200	200
Imaginary divide between democratic western Europe and communist eastern Europe	Truman's proposal to raise minimum wage, expand Social Security benefits, increase federal spending, etc.	Commanded mostly American troops but also U.N. troops	When both the U.S. and U.S.S.R. were building more and more weapons	From 1951-1953 during the Korean War
Iron Curtain	Fair Deal	General MacArthur	Arms Race	Stalemate
300	300	300	300	300
Economic and political plans for containment by the United States	Republican legislation that limited actions workers could take against employers and outlawed closed shops	After about a year of fighting, in 1951 this happened	Growing variety and quantity of products available	Who was behind the Taft-Hartley Act
Marshall Plan and Truman Doctrine	Taft-Harley Act	Stalemate	Affluence	Republican legislatures
400	400	400	400	400
The reason for the Berlin Airlift	Truman's orders to end job discrimination against African Americans and ordered the armed forces to desegregate	What got MacArthur fired	Migration of poor African Americans and Latinos to Northern cities hastened the departure of whites to the	When government employees were called to defend themselves regarding communism before a committee
USSR blocked roads and rails in and out of western Berlin	Truman's attempt at civil rights	He wanted to drop A bomb on China	suburbs	McCarthyism
500	500	500	500	500

The success of Mao Zedong led to this	Congress passed laws to increase minimum wage, expand Social Security and provide funds for housing for low-income families	One positive result for the U.S. that come from the Korean War	focus on accumulating money and possessions rather than in interest in personal and spiritual matters	where the demilitarized zone is located in between North and South Korea
Communist China	Truman's Fair Deal ideas that were passed	Stopped spread of communism	materialism	38th Parallel